BY-LAWS
of
LAWRENCE LODGE, NO.708
F. & A. M.
HELD AT
ERIE, COUNTY OF ERIE
STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA
WARRANT GRANTED JUNE 1, 1921
CONSTITUTED JUNE 16, 1921
APPROVED BY THE GRAND LODGE
As Amended December 7, 1955

ARTICLE I.

Meetings

Section 1. The stated meetings of this Lodge shall be held on the Third Friday of the month, at 7:30 o'clock P.M.

Section 2. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except that for which such meeting is specially called, as stated in the notice.

ARTICLE II.

Election of Officers

Section 1. At the stated meeting next preceding St. John the Evangelist's Day, the election of officers, as provided by the Ahiman Rezon, shall be the first business in order after reading of the minutes, reports of committees, balloting on petitions and reading of petitions: Provided, that said election shall not be held before 8:00 o'clock P.M.

Section 2. In addition to the officers of the Lodge, there shall be elected at the same time, three Trustees (none of whom shall be an elective officer of the Lodge), and a Representative in the Grand Lodge, to serve for one year.

Section 3. No member shall be entitled to vote at the annual election or be eligible to any office unless his dues shall have been paid in full to the night of such election, or the same shall have been duly remitted by vote of the Lodge.

Section 4. Before proceeding to the election, the Secretary shall read a list of the members who are in arrears to the Lodge; whereupon the Master shall announce that such members are neither eligible to office nor entitled to vote.

ARTICLE III.

Duties of Officers

Section 1. The Master shall, at the stated meeting next succeeding St. John the Evangelist's Day, appoint such officers (not elective) as are provided for by the Ahiman Rezon; all of whom, except the Tyler, shall be members of the Lodge. He shall appoint all standing and special committees unless otherwise provided by these By-Laws. At the stated meeting next preceding St. John the Evangelist's Day he shall appoint a committee of three members to audit the books and accounts of the Treasurer, Secretary and Trustees for the year, and it shall be their duty to report at the next stated meeting. He shall have a casting vote on all questions upon which there may be an equal division of votes, except in the election of officers.

Section 2. The Treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the Lodge, other than moneys in the hands of the Trustees for investment, together with all such books and papers as appertain to his office. He shall keep an exact account of all moneys received and pay the same out on orders drawn upon him by authority of the Lodge, which shall be signed by the Master, and countersigned by the Secretary. He shall open an account as "Treasurer of Lawrence Lodge, No. 708, F. & A. M.", with a banking or trust company, to be approved by the Lodge through which account all moneys received and disbursed shall pass. He shall account to the Lodge for all interest allowed on balances in bank and shall have his books, vouchers and accounts ready for examination whenever required by the Lodge or the Auditing Committee. He shall give a bond, to be approved by the Lodge, in favor of the Master, for the use of the Lodge in the penal sum of $2,000 conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty. For his services he shall receive $10.00 per annum be exempt from dues except Grand Lodge dues.

Section 3. The Secretary shall keep fair and correct minutes of the proceedings of the Lodge and issue notices for each stated, special and extra meeting. He shall, in the notice for each stated meeting set forth the name, age, occupation and residence of every petitioner for initiation and membership, or for membership only, whose petition is then pending. In the notice for the stated meeting next preceding the annual election, he shall notify each member of the amount of his indebtedness, including the dues to the night of the annual election; and said notice shall have printed therein Article VI of these By-Laws. He shall furnish, in writing, to the first named on each committee, a list of the committee and an abstract of the business to which its attention is directed, with the papers relating thereto; which papers the Brother so first named shall be answerable for and shall return with report of the Committee. He shall keep the accounts of dues and fees between the Lodge and its members.

He shall receive all moneys which may be paid to the Lodge, report the amount received at each meeting, and the person from whom received, and pay the same forthwith to the Treasurer taking his receipt therefor. He shall furnish each member, on his admission, with a copy of the By-Laws. He shall make regular returns as required by the Ahiman Rezon, and conduct the correspondence of the Lodge under the direction of the Master. He shall have his books and accounts ready for examination whenever required by the Lodge or the Auditing Committee, and perform such services, appertaining to his office, as the Lodge may require. He shall give a bond, to be approved by the Lodge, in favor of the Master for the use of the Lodge, in the penal sum of $1,000 conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty. For his services he shall receive $1,000.00 per annum, and be exempt from dues, except Grand Lodge dues.

Section 4. The Tyler shall perform such services appertaining to his office as the Lodge may require, and as a compensation shall receive for his services the sum of Three Dollars for each meeting.

Section 5. The Trustees shall invest all moneys placed in their hands by the Lodge for that purpose. All investments shall be made in the name of "The Trustees of Lawrence Lodge, No. 708, F. & A. M." They shall make no investments, without the approval of the Lodge at a stated meeting, and then only in bonds and mortgages when the same are first incumbrances, bonds or loans of the United States, or of the State of Pennsylvania, or of a municipality in said State; loans of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, and such securities as are or may be sanctioned by law as a proper investment for trust funds, or those approved by the Grand Master. They shall have no power to alter, change or dispose of any said investments or securities without the sanction of the Lodge. They shall have charge of all real estate, securities and investments of the Lodge, collect the income, interest and dividends thereof, and pay the same to the Secretary at the next stated meeting after it shall have been collected, taking his receipt therefor. They shall make a full report to the Lodge upon the evening of the annual election of all their transactions, with a list of all securities held for the Lodge, and a statement of the condition of the investments.

Section 6. The Stewards shall receive directions from the Master or from the Lodge by resolution, and provide accordingly.

ARTICLE IV.

Petitions

Section 1. All petitions for membership other than members of this Jurisdiction shall be accompanied with the fee of $60. All petitions for initiation and membership shall be accompanied with $150.00 which sum shall be considered the fee. If the petition be withdrawn or the petitioner rejected the money shall be returned; but if approved and he does not come forward within six months thereafter it shall be returned.

Section 2. On the rejection of a petitioner for initiation and membership no member or visitor shall disclose the name of any Brother who may have opposed his admission; under the penalty, if a member, of expulsion; and if a visitor, of never being permitted to visit the Lodge again, or to become a member thereof. And that none present may remain ignorant of this By-Law, the Master shall cause it to be read immediately after the rejection of a petitioner.

Section 3. A petitioner for initiation and membership or for membership only, who has been rejected, shall be immediately notified thereof in writing, under the seal of the Lodge, by the Secretary.

ARTICLE V.

Fees

Section 1. The fees for conferring degrees and membership shall be as follows:

For initiation and membership $150.00 of which $60, shall be for the Masonic Homes of the Grand Lodge.

For the admission and advancement of an Entered Apprentice Mason $ 80.00

For the admission and advancement of a Fellow Craft Mason $ 60.00

For the admission of a Master Mason of this Grand Jurisdiction No Charge

For the admission of Brethren from Lodges of other Jurisdiction $60 additional for the Masonic Homes of the Grand Lodge.

Section 2. The full fee for all degrees petitioned for shall in all cases be paid before any degree is conferred.

ARTICLE VI.

Dues

Section 1. The dues of each member shall be Fifteen Dollars per annum, except when otherwise provided by these By-Laws.

Section 2. Any member being in arrears to the Lodge for two or more years on the night of the annual election, and neglecting or refusing to pay the same after he has been summoned by action of the Lodge at the next preceding stated meeting to pay his arrears or show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment thereof, may be suspended from membership; provided, that before any member be suspended, it shall satisfactorily appear to the Lodge that such member has, in addition to such summons, received due notice as required by Article III, Section 3, of these By-Laws, and that the provisions of the Ahiman Rezon have been fully complied with.

ARTICLE VII.

Honorary Membership

Section 1. Any member of the Lodge who shall pay, over and above all arrearages of dues, the sum of ($150.00) shall be constituted an Honorary Member and be exempt from all dues or contributions except Grand Lodge Dues.

Section 2. Any member who shall have paid full dues to the Lodge for twenty (20) years or more shall be constituted an Honorary Member on the payment of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) in addition to the dues to time of such payment and be exempt from dues except Grand Lodge Dues.

Section 3. Any Brother who has been a member and has paid full dues for forty years or more may, by a vote of the Lodge, be made an Honorary Member without payment of any fee and shall be exempt from all dues except Grand Lodge Dues.

Section 4. A brother who has resigned or been suspended from the Lodge shall, upon his readmission, be credited in respect to his becoming an Honorary Member, with the time for which he was actually a member.

Section 5. All amounts received for Honorary Membership shall be invested in the Permanent Fund, as provided in Article VIII.

ARTICLE VIII.

Permanent Fund

Section 1. In order to insure stability and perpetuity to the Lodge there shall be established a Permanent Fund, which shall be invested by the Trustees as provided in Article III, Section 5, of these By-Laws.

Section 2. There shall be set aside for this purpose:

(a) The amount now in the hands of the Trustees for this purpose.

(b) The whole amount received for

Honorary Membership.

(c) All moneys or property which may accrue to the Lodge by donation, gift, devise or otherwise for this purpose.

(d) All such sums as the Lodge may, by resolution, apply to this purpose.

Section 3. The Fund thus created shall not be impaired nor diminished; but shall be increased from time to time as the finances of the Lodge may admit.

ARTICLE IX.

Resignations

Any member wishing to resign from the Lodge shall present his resignation in writing at a stated meeting. At the next succeeding stated meeting the resignation, subject to the provisions of Section 6, page 68, of the Ahiman Rezon, shall be accepted; provided, that in case of emergency, of which the Lodge shall be the judge, the resignation (subject to aforesaid) may be accepted at the meeting when it is offered.

ARTICLE X.

Standing Committees

Section 1. Committee on Grievance—
There shall be a Committee on Grievance, consisting of 3 members, 2 of whom shall be Past Masters, to whom all complaints against any of the Brethren of the Lodge shall be referred with directions to accommodate the difference in an amicable manner, if possible. If they cannot do so, they shall report to the Lodge their proceedings, together with all the facts connected with the case and such measures as they may deem proper to recommend.

Section 2. Committee on Charity— There shall be a Committee on Charity, consisting of 3 members, one of whom shall be the Master, to whom shall be referred all petitions for charity. It shall be their duty to examine and see if the applicant is worthy to receive charity from the Lodge, and, if so, may recommend the appropriation of such sum as they may deem proper. In case of immediate emergency they may request the Master to draw an order on the Treasurer for such sum as the case may require, not exceeding the sum of $100.00.

Section 3. Committee on Furniture. There shall be a Committee, consisting of three members, who shall have charge of the clothing and furniture of the Lodge; see that the same are kept in repair; purchase new clothing and furniture when directed; and make a written report with a full and correct inventory attached, at the stated meeting in December.

Section 4. All standing committees shall be appointed by the Master at the stated meeting next ensuing the annual election.

ARTICLE XI.

Amendments

No addition, alteration or amendment to these By-Laws shall be made unless a motion therefor be presented in writing at a stated meeting, with the names of the mover and seconder. It shall be read by the Secretary and lay over without debate until the next stated meeting; in the notices for which the proposed amendment or alteration shall be set forth in full, with notice to the members that the same will then be considered and acted upon; and if it shall then be approved by a majority of the members present, it shall be adopted.
